WHAT IS THE MICHELLE ADEY FUND ?

Michelle Adey, the six year old daughter of Mike Adey and Mary Carmel Wolf of Rome, New York, died of cystic fibrosis in 1982. Thanks to the help of friends and family, The Michelle M. Adey Memorial Fund was established to keep her memory alive by assisting other families whose children face serious illnesses. It is the longest running fund of this kind in the area.

The fund operates primarily in the greater Utica-Rome area. Since its inception, the Michelle Fund has disbursed over $700,000 to more than 345 families whose children suffer from cancer, leukemia, heart disease, cystic fibrosis and various illnesses. Several accident and burn victims have also been helped.
